YOUNG WILL NOT, HE SAYS, OPEN HILO HOTEL

(Bulletin Special Wireless)
Hilo, March 25.—Alexander Young denies that he has an intention of reopening the Hilo Hotel. He says his interests in Honolulu are sufficient to engage his attention.
The steamer Enterprise will sail for San Francisco next Saturday. Her schedule has been changed, and she will not call at Honolulu.

Will Fight For Land

(Special to the Bulletin)
Naelehu, Hawaii, March 22.—Members of the Thompson Land Settlement Association here claim they will continue their fight in the courts to secure the land they applied for, if they have to carry the case to Washington. One of them said this week: "Yes, we are going to fight the case to a finish. We believe according to the wording of the law we are entitled to the land. It's a pretty odd if an association composed altogether of Americans is refused its rights. As one of those Americans I think I can speak for the rest. We refused to be ejected. Of course the law says, 'according to the discretion of the Land Commissioner,' but has anyone ever shown why a member of this association should not have what is asked for? Why, several of the members are teachers in the public schools. Don't you think as such they are citizens that would rightly exercise their homestead rights?"
While the case continues in the courts, this land, among the best in the district, goes untended. The plantation has no assurance that it can retain control of the land and the but that wants it cannot get it. Hence the acres are covered with old rattoons.

WORK OF THE HOUSE DELAYED BY SENATE

Representatives Say Upper Body Is Too Slow

If the work of the Legislature is not concluded at the end of the 60 days it will not be the fault of the House, for in that branch of the legislative body the work is being rushed through with little delay.
"If the work of the Legislature is not finished at the end of the 60 days," said a Representative this morning, "the Senate will be to blame for it. There are now 44 House bills in the hands of the Senate, while we have only six Senate bills down here. I can't see what they do with their time up there. It looks as if they were wasting a lot of it."

Up to this morning when the House convened there had been introduced in the House a total of 163 bills. Of these 24 after passing the Senate have gone to the Governor for his signature, and he has signed eight of them, and vetoed three. Two of the vetoes were sustained and one was overridden. Thirteen House bills still remain in the hands of the Governor.

Of the other bills introduced in the House, the following is the present status:
Judiciary Committee, 17; Finance Committee, 7; Special Committee (Rice chairman), 2; Health and Police Committee, 6; Education Committee, 2; Public Lands Committee, 2; Printing Committee, 12; Clerk, 16; deferred (to be read on different dates), 4; tables, 42; Senate, 23; Assistant Clerk, 2.

In the matter of expenses there is a good showing on the side of economy in the House. To date there has been spent by the House $552.43 of the Territorial appropriation and $584.28 of the Federal appropriation—a total of $1,136.69. This is an average of $121.72 a day. Last session the average to the end of the 27th day was over $800.

However, there have been few House junkies yet, but there are several slated to come off, and they will probably raise the average considerably.

The drawing in of the breath by Japanese when addressing anyone face to face may be explained by the following:
The Japanese prince drew in his breath with a hissing sound as he bent over the young girl's hand.

"Prince," said she, "I have been up against a lot of japs, and they all hiss like that when they meet you. What's the reason, anyway?"
"The reason is politeness," the prince answered. "I hiss—like this—I draw in my breath—I keep on drawing it in as long as I remain near you. For if I blow any out, some of it might be blown in your fair face. What an offense! Shocking! And so we Japanese always hiss in exchanging greetings. Out of politeness we hold our breath."

OLYMPIC CLUB GIVES BY AUTHORITY

WITH SONG AND MUSIC FINE ENTERTAINMENT

A delightful entertainment was given last Saturday evening at the St. Antonio Hall on Vineyard street, under the management of the Olympic Athletic Club. The entire program was well rendered and greatly enjoyed, as evidenced by the hearty applause with which each number was received.

Several of the musical numbers planned for, unfortunately had to be omitted on account of illness. The following is the program as presented:
Guitar Solo—"Honolulu High School March" Ernest Kaai

Song—"The Old Plantation" Arthur Myher

Kindergarten Assistants.

Recitation—Miss May Paty.

Quartet—"Come Where the Lilies Bloom" W. L. Thompson

Mrs. J. Fernandez, Miss Lily Madela, Chas. Gilliland, Geo. Madela.

Chorus—"Merrily Goes Our Bark" Leslie

High School Boys' Chorus.

Comedy—"He Was Never Known to Smile" C. Barnard

Mrs. J. S. Marques, Miss Adeline Franca, J. D. Marques, Chas. Gilliland.

Quartet Selected

The Merry Warblers.

Recitation—(a) Sockery Joins the Lodge. (b) The Marriage Ceremony Chas. Branco

Duet—"When Life Is Brightest" Wm. Branco

Solo and Pantomime—"Home Sweet Home" Miss Louise Melin, Frank and Wm. Branco.

Chorus—"The Busy Bee" High School Boys' Chorus.

Solo and Pantomime—"Home Sweet Home" Mrs. N. Alapai and nine young ladies.

Orchestra—"Dreaming, Love, of You" Harris

High School Mandolin Club.

It is hoped that the young ladies of the Olympic Athletic Club realized funds sufficient to put their tennis courts in first class condition again.

YEE BING MAY NEVER RETURN

Yee Bing, treasurer of the local Chinese Merchants' Association, has gone to China on a business trip. It may be some time before Yee returns if the powers that exist in the Flowery Kingdom get their eyes on an article printed in a local sheet. The article in question accuses Yee Bing of visiting his native country on a rebellious mission. A Chinaman accused of such a deed stands a very poor chance of ever making good with Tsi An.

The Bow Wongs, a society from which Yee Bing withdrew on account of alleged crooked work, is very jealous of the Chinese Merchants' Association, and the sequel to Yee's visit to China will be looked for with interest.

A movement has been started among the Harvard alumni to raise between $50,000 and $100,000 for the erection of a musical union building. The structure, which will house all the musical activities of the university, will be located on Holmes Island, and will be dedicated to the late Prof. James K. Payne, founder of the department of music at Harvard.
